

REVIEWS OF MODERN PHYSICS REPRINT ORDER FORM FOR AUTHORS

Reviews of Modern Physics has no page charges and does not provide free reprints to authors. However, authors may order reprints of their articles before publication and be billed when they are sent. Review articles are softbound in covers similar to the journal's, while colloquia are without covers. They will be shipped by surface mail unless other arrangements are requested. After publication, reprints are available for sale to the physics community. A catalog of available reprints is featured at the url <http://rmp.aps.org/rmplist.pdf>. Note that orders in advance of publication are priced lower, and there is a discount for bulk orders (see Prices below). To order in advance, please fill in this form and return it to:
